

Opportunity: Canada Snowboard's Board of Directors

September 11, 2019

As a national sport organization, Canada Snowboard is governed by an elected Board of Directors. The board helps to shape and direct the current practices and future development of competitive snowboarding in Canada by setting the overall strategic priorities and strategy.

There are currently four (4) positions available for election. These four (4) positions will join the five (5) existing directors and athletes' council representative to form the ten (10) elected directors. Of these ten, there will be four officers elected by the directors as per the Canadian Snowboard Federation (CS) general bylaws. Please see section #7 for these four officer positions and their associated responsibilities.

The deadline to submit your application is October 1st, 2019. Before applying for the Canada Snowboard Board of Directors, please read the CS Board Roles, Responsibilities and Expectations.
